Ask ten citizens inside Chicago about their opinion of the national election and you get a vague, "Well I don't know, what do you think?" Ask ten what they think of the Loeb-Leopold murder trial and vague indifference vanishes.

One: "They ought to be hanged, only hanging is too good for them."

Two: "Jail them for life, at hard labor; that will cure them. To hang them, punishing and disgracing the fathers and mothers, would let the murderers off too easy."

Three: "You can't send them to prison, it wouldn't be right to put them in with respectable convicts. Why, say, those boys would make an atheist out of every man in the prison. Can you imagine turning loose a lot of criminals, that don't believe in hell fire, or that God is watching? No.

"What wouldn't they do?"

Four: "They were both born murderers and thieves. Their parents ought to have known what they were, and ought to have protected the community against them.

"To have sons like that running around is like turning mad dogs into the streets.

"They have got to be hanged."

Five: "If they imprison those boys for life, as they call it, they will be out in two or four years. You can do anything with 'dough,' and when they come out, whose children will be safe?"

Six: "Prison is the place. No use torturing the fathers and mothers, who have committed no crime. Hard prison work would punish such boys far more than quick strangling."

Seven: "If they don't hang those boys, there will be riots, and somebody will get what's coming to him. They have confessed and the state has proved a crime that calls for hanging, and the people mean to have a hanging, and a double portion."

Eight: "The luckiest thing that could happen to them would be hanging. Every criminal in every jail knows what they did to the little Franks boy. If they land in prison they will be picked around for a few days, then somebody will quietly give them a rap on the head like the one they gave that little rap. They won't enjoy themselves in prison."

Nine: "To hear them talk about Leopold and Loeb you would think it was the first time anything horrible ever happened. Pouring acid on the face of that dead boy was sickening, but what about pouring kerosene over a living man and setting fire to him? What about the mob kicking a young woman around the street, and after beating her up, pouring boiling hot tar over her naked body? We are all savages and any mob proves it."

Ten: "They ought to set those boys free, near some big public school, first gathering together a hundred mothers and fathers with clubs in their hands. What gets me is the self control of the father of that murdered boy, sitting every day within ten feet of the two young wolves that killed his son. If it was my son, Oh boy! Why doesn't he walk up behind them, with a gun in each hand, poke the guns into their back, fill them full of lead and then say to the judge: 'Now go ahead and try me.' They would build a monument to him and carry him out of the court on their shoulders. If it wasn't for his dignity, the judge would help carry him."

Mr. Davis, able dry-goods merchant of Waterloo, Ia., tells an interstate meeting of merchants in Chicago that this country "faces an era of the greatest prosperity ever experienced."

Drygoods men, especially owners of department stores, deal with a bigger percentage of the population than all other business men put together. They are able to judge conditions, dealing directly with millions of homes.

It may interest Mr. Davis and his assistants to know that Bernard Baruch who knows European and American conditions, said just before he sailed the other day, "if the Dawes

CANDIDATE BACK IN NEW YORK AFTER VACATION; BACKS BRYAN STAND ON NATIONAL DEFENSE DAY

(By Associated Press)

New York, July 31—Having practically opened his campaign on the return trip from Maine 10 days in advance of formal notification of his nomination as the democratic presidential candidate, John W. Davis arrived in New York today and immediately began to acquaint himself with the various details of the campaign plans as they have been worked out while he was on a vacation in the Penobscot Bay islands.

Meets With Manager

Reaching his personal headquarters after an all night journey from Rockland, Me., Mr. Davis went into consultation with his field marshall, C. L. Shaver. Questions of organization were discussed chiefly but several developments in the world of politics since Mr. Davis left for Maine were taken up.

Virtually isolated on a 700 acre island as he was for nearly two weeks, the nominee was without full information on a number of subjects, among them the refusal of his running mate, Governor Charles Bryan, to cooperate with the Coolidge administration in carrying out national defense day in September.

Supports Running Mate

Mr. Davis announced that he was in entire accord with Governor Bryan, regarding "Mobilization day."

Mr. Davis declared that the view expressed by Governor Bryan that there was no necessity at this time for encouraging civilians to leave their occupations for the purpose of engaging in what would be only a military demonstration without any practical educational effect is entirely sound.

State Police Called Again in Massachusetts Klan Riot

Haverhill, Mass., July 31—Four men were shot here early today when hostile crowds clashed with between 3,000 and 5,000 members of the Ku Klux Klan who held a meeting lasting into the early morning on a hall in the neighborhood of Groveland.

State and local police quelled the disturbance, taking into custody 23 men including three of the wounded. The injured alleged that they were fired upon by klansmen in a large truck when they attempted to pass them after a state policeman had signaled them to move ahead.

LATEST

HOG PRICES DROP $1

Chicago, July 31.—Hog prices today received one of the severest setbacks ever noted for a 24 hour period. All classes of buyers were insisting on sharp reductions of values and were pointing out that receipts of 35,000 hogs here today with more than half that number left over unsold from yesterday gave the trade more swine that the immediate demand called for.

After the market had been idle for an hour sales were effected at $1 under yesterday's best prices, $10 per hundred weight being the top figure offered for prime hogs as against a limit of $11 yesterday. Under such circumtances a large number of hogs were kept off the market and a liberal hold over supply for tomorrow apparently is assured.

BRITISH FLYERS MISSING

Aboard the U. S. Cutter Algonquin, Atka Island, July 31.—Repeated efforts by wireless in all directions have failed to obtain any word of Major Stewart MacLaren since a party under his command arrived at Petropavlovsk last Thursday on a circumnavigation of the earth.

BADGER GIRL GOLF CHAMP

Chicago, July 31.—Miss Dorothy Page of Madison, Wis., won the Western Women's Junior golf title today from Miss Josephine Morse, Chicago, defending champion, three up and one to play. It was the first time since the junior play was inaugurated that a player outside of Chicago has won the title.

FEAR MINE DISASTER

London, July 31.—A terrific explosion today shook Maltby village, and it is feared that a great disaster took place at the Maltby mines near Rotherham, nine miles away, according to a report received by the Associated Press. There were 1,800 men in the mines.

Sentenced To Death 9 Days After Crime

(By Associated Press)

Mound City, Ill., July 31.—Nine days after Miss Daisey Wilson, pretty 18-year-old girl, was slain while attempting to protect her father from an attack by two negroes who had entered the Wilson store at Villa Ridge, Ill., with the confessed intent to rob, Hess Conners, 22, and Fred Hale, 19, Cairo negroes who entered a plea of guilty to first degree murder and robbery, were sentenced, the former to hanging and the latter to serve 99 years in the Illinois state penitentiary at hard labor.

The decisions were returned last night in the Pulaski county circuit court by Judge Hartwell following presentation of evidence required in first degree murder cases.

Conners, whose time of execution was set at October 17, had previously confessed to firing the shot that killed Miss Wilson, while Hale confessed complicity in the robbery.

PERSIA TO PUNISH IMBRIE'S SLAYERS

GOVERNMENT PROMISES TO MEET ALL DEMANDS MADE BY U.-S. IN RECENT MESSAGE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, July 31.—The Persian government has assured the state department it will take steps with regard to the Imbrie incident, insuring that there is no grounds whatever for any anxiety on the part of the United States government.

Pursue Criminals

Replying to the American communication demanding full protection for American citizens in Persia and threatening to break off diplomatic relations as a result of the killing of the vice consul and subsequent attack on his widow, the Persian government declared it would "repair the instance and fulfill the points suggested by the United States.

The reply said also that the imperial government "is making extreme efforts in pursuit and punishment of the persons who caused and perpetrated the killing of Mr. Imbrie," and it will not hesitate to take any kind of action in this connection.

Will Protect Americans

Concerning the anxiety over the security of American nationals in Persia and particularly American official representatives the communication says:

"The Persian government has always considered and will continue to consider this as a positive duty and gives assurance that there will be no men hesitating to fulfill their duties."

L'Follette-Wheeler Ticket Has Enough Nevada Signers

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, July 31.—Sufficient signatures on the petition to place the La-Follette-Wheeler ticket on the November ballot in Nevada were secured today and the petition will be filed this afternoon, M. G. Scanlon, Reno, reported in a telegram to Donald R. Richberg, in charge of legal details of the La Follette campaign.

Robbery of Lackawanna Railway Mail Frustrated

(By Associated Press)

East Orange, N. J., July 31—One bandit was killed, one escaped and a mail clerk wounded twice when he frustrated an attempted mail robbery at Lackawana railway station at 5 o'clock today.

FRENCH OFFER TO QUIT RUHR GIVES ALLIES NEW HOPE

EVENTUAL SUCCESS OF DAWES PROGRAM IS SEEN IN HERRIOT'S LATEST COMPROMISE OFFER

(By Associated Press)

London, July 31.—The members of the expert committee of the inter-allied conference after examining the proposal submitted by the French experts yesterday as a compromise plan to end the conference deadlock over the securities for the Dawes plan declared that it was there belief today that the French proposal with minor alterations would be acceptable to the conference.

The French proposal was accepted unanimously by Committee No. 1 of the conference while an amendment put forward by British members this morning was withdrawn. Both French and British delegates congratulated each other on the happy turn of events. One delegate said:

Difficulties Ended

The British participants in the conference viewed the French plan as the greatest effort yet made to bring a settlement of conference difficulties so that the Dawes plan can be put into operation, and they are of the opinion that it will be the greatest step toward a final settlement.

Will Leave Ruhr

The French compromise proposal for breaking the deadlock in the inter-allied conference provides for the evacuation of Hagen in the Ruhr by the French and Belgian troops after the flotation of the Dawes plan German loan of $200,000,000 according to the Havas News Agency.

After the issue of each of the three sections of the 2,000,000,000 gold marks of German industrial railway bonds, the French and Belgians would evacuate successively Dortmund, Bochum and Essen.

If the markets of the world are unable to absorb the issue of railway bonds, the troops would nevertheless definitely leave the Ruhr on Aug. 15, 1926, on condition that the German reich had by that time fulfilled all the obligations imposed by the Dawes plan.

North Dakota Non-Partisans to Support L'Follette Ticket

(By Associated Press)

Bismark, N. D., July 31.—Senator Robert M. La Follette and Senator Burton K. Kheeler, candidates for president and vice president respectively, will have the support of the non-partisan league of North Dakota in their campaign in this state this fall. This was decided upon at a conference here last night attended by republican members of the league who voted by acclamation in favor of the action.

In taking this step the conference agreed that all non-partisan leaders indorse candidates pledged to support La Follette.

In a special meeting the farmer-labor supporters also indorsed La Follette.

Bulgarian Peasants Tell Officers of Greek Murders

(By Associated Press)

Sofia, Bulgaria, July 1.—Nineteen Bulgarian peasants are alleged to have been shot by a squad of Greek military men in Grecian Macedonia, according to the Bulgarian telegraphic agency with cites a dispatch from the under perfect of Pritich.

This officer said four peasants told him they were among 36 who were seized and bound by the Greeks upon orders from officials at the frontier near the village of Tirche, and shot down, only seven escaping. Another group of 15 Bulgarians were seized and taken to the same spot but the peasants said their fate was unknown.

Nekoosa Retailers Can't Give Away $500 Certificate

The Nekoosa Retailers' association has a $500 Nekoosa Building and Loan certificate to give away to somebody, but cannot find the person entitled to it.

In the selection of winners in the third sales campaign sponsored by the Nekoosa Retailers' Association yesterday afternoon in the village park, a Mr. Shiebe, Route 3, Wisconsin Rapids, was awarded the $500 building certificate, capital prize of the campaign.

No one in the large crowd assembled about the band stand proclaimed himself the lucky individual, however, and a diligent search of the telephone book, city directory and the district itself has failed to reveal anybody by the name of Shiebe.

The certificate is being held by the secretary of the association, H. H. Voss, pending proof of ownership by the winner.

Over fifty minor gifts donated by Nekoosa merchants were also awarded yesterday. This campaign, a member of the association was quoted as saying, ends the string of three of them. Something of a slightly different nature may be put on next fall, he said.

State Concludes Fight To Bar Alienists' Testimony From Franks Murder Trial

Chicago, July 31.—The state had reached the final step of its effort to keep out of the court record the opinions of alienists on the mental responsibility of Nathan Leopold jr., and Richard Loeb when the afternoon session started today.

Thomas Marshall, legal expert for the state's attorney, started at that hour to sum up the results of the argument he had presented to Judge John R. Caverly throughout a day and one-half of court sessions.

The state was maintaining that testimony by the alienists could be heard only on the question of insanity, which question, it is admitted, could be decided only by a jury on a plea of not guilty.

The defense was resting on the contention that a condition of mental disease short of insanity was proper grounds for consideration in mitigation of punishment.

Clarence F. Darrow started the answer of the defense after Mr. Marshall had summed up in a few sentences.

"I have never seen such enthusiasm for the death penalty as in this case," said Mr. Darrow. "If I thought hanging them would stop the crime of murder I would favor it but I have no such feeling."

'MISTAKE' IF BOB ENDORSES BLAINE

COMINGS IN PUBLIC STATEMENT SAYS HE AND NOT GOVERNOR IS TRUE LA FOLLETTE CANDIDATE

Madison, Wis.—Lieut. Gov. George F. Comings declared in a statement today that if Senator Robert M. La Follette endorses Gov. John J. Blaine as has been announced he will know that the senator has made a mistake.

Mr. Comings points out that the senator has "erred" before and mentions the fact that two years ago the senator endorsed Elmer Hall for congress against George Schneider.

"I shall regret his mistake and without resentment I shall follow the straight path which my duty to genuine La Follette progressives demands," he declared.

Is "Showing Up Blaine"

"Some of the stalwart newspapers which for months have sought to belittle or ignore my candidacy, every little while start the false rumor that I am to withdraw as the La Follette progressive candidate for governor. yesterday I filed my nomination papers and of course I shall stay in the race until Sept. 2. Why shouldn't I? Every day since I announced my candidacy and began showing up Gov. Blaine's betrayal of the progressive cause, new recruits have been rallying to my support until now nearly all the leading progressives of the state are solidly back of me."

Mr. Comings named a long list of progressive leaders who he said were backing his campaign.

"Gov. Blaine has lost the support of the Capital Times and a number of other progressive newspapers which are friendly to my candidacy.

For Bob Notwithstanding

"It is again reported that Senator La Follette will endorse the candidacy of Mr. Blaine, and again I say as I said several months ago, Senator La Follette may not be for me, but I am for Senator La Follette and I have been for 20 years. I, and not Gov. Blaine, am stressing in my campaign the La Follette platform, calling for reforms to promote the general welfare of the people and save them from the exploitations of selfish and corrupt by-partisan government.

"I am praising the senators mastery of the railroads problem, his uncovering of the teapot dome scandal his enlightened leadership in the senate, his achievements in Wisconsin and the moral principals which have always sustained him.

"The progress which I have already made in winning support for my candidacy, I have made in spite of a state-wide impression that Senator La Follette would back Gov. Blaine and which originated from an interview given out by Robert M. La Follette, jr., soon after I entered the field."

Kirkwall, Orkney Islands, Scotland, July 31.—The United States world flyers who arrived here yesterday from Brough, England, have postponed their departure for Iceland until tomorrow because of reports of adverse weather conditions received from patrol boats.

Lodge Has Comfortable Night; Condition Good

(By Associated Press)

Cambridge, Mass., July 31.— Senator Henry Cabot Lodge had a comfortable night at the Charlesgate hospital where he is recuperating from an operation. The bulletin issued by his physician after his visit this morning said:

SONS ACCUSED OF ARSON, MURDER

SOUTH MILWAUKEE MEN FACE TRIAL FOR FIRE IN WHICH THEIR FATHER WAS BURNED TO DEATH

(By Associated Press)

Milwaukee, July 31.—John Brandt, jr., 30, and Louis Brandt, 28, in jail here awaiting the arrival of a deputy sheriff from Marinette county on a charge of murder and arson following investigation by the officers of the state fire marshal's office of the fire which destroyed the barn near Beaver, Wis., in 1921 in which it is said was found the body of John Brandt, sr., today stoutly denied having anything to do with the origin of the fire.

Witnesses Tell Story

The elder Brandt is believe to have been burned to death in the fire. The arrest of the two sons was made after a statement obtained from Vincent Koteski, a Milwaukee barber, who recited in an affidavit that he was present at the time the barn burned. According to his statement bad feeling existed between the elder Brandt and other members of his family, and the sons searched for their father a few minutes before the fire started. John Brandt, sr., is believed to have been in the hay mow of the barn at the time it was burned.

Revolver Near Body

Members of the families of the younger men made an effort to save the father from burning but were unsuccessful. His charred body was found later. Nearby was a revolver, according to A. F. Murphy, district attorney of Marinette county.

The men held here say that the elder Brandt had made statements suggesting that he would end his life on account of domestic troubles. Sheriff Oscar Dahl of Marinette is expected here today to take the men to Marinette county.

Making Progress With Removing Wires, Poles

Crews of workmen from the Wood County Telephone company and the Electric Light and Water commission are progressing rapidly with their work of removing the wires and poles from Grand avenue. The Electric company has been removing its wires for the past two years whenever changes or additions were necessary with the idea of having as much of the work accomplished as possible when the time came for removing the poles.

The Telephone company is also making rapid progress but will not have their work completed as soon as the Electric company. It is expected, however, that all wires and poles will be removed sometime this fall, it was stated today by an officer of the Telephone company.

BULLETIN

Milwaukee, July 31—The republican national committee will make an active campaign for the Coolidge-Dawes ticket in Wisconsin, it is indicated by communications received and discussed at a meeting of Coolidge and Dawes supporters here, according to John E. Fitzgibbons, one of those promoting the meeting. Mr. Fitzgibbons said he had received assurances from Lloyd O. West, secretary of the national committee, that such a campaign would be made.

Chairman T. P. Abel was instructed to appoint a committee to determine the advisability of calling a state meeting with an administration speaker in attendance.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, July 31.—With Senator La Follette and his followers in complete control of the republican organization in Wisconsin, republican campaign managers are seeking means of putting the names of Coolidge and Dawes on the ballot for the November election in that state.

Republican managers have been advised that the La Follette electors will appear under the republican emblem on the Wisconsin ballot and that a vote for the republican ticket in that state in November will be a vote for Senators La Follette and Wheeler. The question, accordingly, has been raised as to whether Mr. Coolidge and General Dawes should be listed as independent candidates.

Would Concede State

Some republican managers were not disposed to enter the republican nominees under an independent heading, feeling that La Follette might just as well be conceded his home state.

The majority voice among the managers, however, was that the names of the republican standard bearers should be placed on the ballot and this feeling is supported by numerous letters received from those in Wisconsin who are classed as "regular republicans."

Michigan Prospects Bright

Having discussed the Michigan political situation and received what was described as "most encouraging news" as to the republican prospects there at a conference yesterday with Governor Grosbeck of that state, President Coolidge today drove forward with work on his notification speech without fear of interruptions of a political nature in prospect.

Says Fears Baseless

Chicago, July 31.—Fear on the part of republican leaders that unusual steps may be necessary to place a Coolidge and Dawes electorial ticket in the field in Wisconsin are unfounded in the opinion of Representative John M. Nelson of Wisconsin, national manager of the La Follette-Wheeler campaign.

Apprised today of the report from Washington that the republican managers had been advised that the La-Follette electors would be entered under the republican party designation Mr. Nelson revealed in detail the plans of the campaign managers directing the La Follette offensive in Wisconsin. Under this plan, he emphasized, the La Follette electors will be entered in Wisconsin, "as in every other state, namely in an independent column."

Mercury Takes 37-Degree Fall; July Rain Normal

The mercury started a downward slide at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and did not stop until it had reached the low level of 47 early this morning, a drop of 37 degrees and only 15 degrees above freezing, Geo. T. Nixon, local weather observer, announced today. Last Monday afternoon a high record of 90 was reached.

The rainfall for the month of July was 3.61 according to Mr. Nixon's records. This is about normal for that month.

Four Contests Instead of Three at Primaries

In addition to the three contests for county offices that were published in Wednesday's Tribune there is the contest between R. R. Williams, district attorney, and Marvin S. King young Wisconsin Rapids attorney who is opposing Mr. Williams for the office of district attorney of Wood county. Through error this contest was omitted in the Wednesday story.

CITY AND COUNTRY

In Wisconsin we are learning that there is no sharply drawn line between city and farm. Town and country are parts of the same community, and the progress and success of each is essential to the happiness and prosperity of the other. Dwellers in the rural sections are dependent upon the cities and villages for markets for their products, and also to a large extent for entertainment and for the goods which they must buy. On the other hand the cities depend upon the country for the food and clothing of their people, the raw materials for their factories, and the market for the goods which their factories produce and their merchants sell.

Neither can look calmly upon the misfortune of the other, for that misfortune is sure indirectly to affect both.

When business men, bankers and farmers of Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma toured the leading dairy sections of Wisconsin in search of ideas which would be beneficial to the development of agriculture in their own states, one of the things which struck them most forcibly was the friendly relationship existing among all elements in the communities which they visited.

"The most outstanding condition which was evident in every county visited was the fine cooperation among the bankers, business men, county agents, college representatives, cow testers and all others with the farmers in every activity looking to the betterment of conditions and increased prosperity. This cooperation has brought about a most prosperous and wholesome agricultural condition in Wisconsin . . . ."

This is something that has been developed almost unconsciously in Wisconsin, but which is worth a great deal of effort to save.

plan goes through as I think it will, there will be five years of such prosperity for this country as the world has never seen. Europe will buy unlimited quantities of our products. POLITICAL SITUATION

Frank Putnam of Milwaukee, identified with the street railway interests there, figures Davis will have 254 votes, La Follette, 251, and Coolidge 26, in the electoral college, thus throwing the entire situation into the House for the election of a president.

According to his figures, Coolidge will only carry Mississippi, Vermont and Utah, with a total of 26 votes.

For La Follette he claims Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

As to the claims for La Follette, there is much question as to the strength claimed for him. We do not believe that he can carry Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, South Dakota or Pennsylvania, all claimed by Putnam for the Wisconsin senator.

We can see however, where Coolidge is seriously handicapped by La Follette's campaign. Every state that La Follette carries is normally a Republican state, and consequently is taken from the Coolidge column. There is very little, if any likelihood of Coolidge being able to carry half as many states as Davis, and unless there is a landslide for Davis, the whole situation will go to the House for the election of a president.—Sheboygan Press-Telegram.

Magee

(NEA Service Paper)

A newspaper man is about the only sort of citizen who can win honor by going to jail.

Carl Magee, editor of the New Mexico State Tribune, a Scripps-Howard newspaper, went to jail, a victim of politics, and today instead of being disgraced stands before his community with fame and honor.

It was a kick-back that politicans had failed to anticipate. Politicians can be expected to use such judgment:

Magee, convinced that Judge Leahy was corrupt, had the nerve to say so. He told the people of New Mexico when he was called to trial that he had as much chance as "a lamb in a butcher's shop."

Leahy proved that Magee had told the truth. The judge acted as accuser, judge and jury. He sentenced Magee to jail.

Even a pardon from the governor was not enough to keep Magee from jail and the editor's case is now before the supreme court of New Mexico, which will rule on two questions, whether a governor can pardon for direct contempt and if Magee was in direct contempt.

When Judge Leahy first found Magee guilty of contempt and sentenced him to jail many newspapers sided with the judge. Now the worm has turned and these same newspapers are assailing the judge, demanding that he resign.

Respect and the dignity of the courts must be protected. But it is not within the province of any judge to use his office as a cloak for the evils of a political machine.

Editor Magee has proved his fearlessness in working for the interest of his community. This same community has now arisen to work for its editor.

And while the supreme court deliberates Magee stands forth as a crusader for the people. His conquest will serve to rid his community of a political pestilence.

How Tourists View North

(Rhinelander Daily News)

This is a gosh-darn wild country, full of bears and wolves and wild porcupines and Indians with war paint on, where no man is safe without a regular arsenal of guns and a trusty bowie knife—at least that's what some of the tourists seem to believe before they come here, judging by letters received by E. O. Barstow, secretary of the Land o' Lakes association.

"Is a license necessary to carry a gun for purposes of self defense?" inquires a letter received by Mr. Barstow from a Chicago man who expects to make a tour up here in the "wilds." This is only the most recent of several letters expressing the same question, Mr. Barstow declares.

And almost everybody knows how S. B. Gary fooled the lady entertainers from the recent chautauqua into thinking the fried chicken they were eating was porcupine, "an animal as big as a cow, that can throw its quills as far as it can see you." Bless their hearts, they just want to believe it's wild.

ARMY ROUTINE IS KEEPING MEN BUSY

WORK AND PLAY HOURS OCCUPY TIME DURING DAY; DEVILMENT KEEPS MEN BUSY UNTIL TAPS IS SOUNDED

Between army camp routine, as determined by the camp officers, and army devilment, as determined by army camp privates, Battery E 120 F. A. is having a mighty busy time of it at camp this year, the Tribune correspondent reports in his daily message from camp. News of interest to mothers is contained in the information that all members of the local battery were given a medical inspection and all passed successfully.

Hunts "Military Channel"

Among the facts of interest discovered by the Tribune informant are the following: Captain Severance will have to turn into twins in order to be in two distinct and far away places at the same time; Casper has won his first bout with ease; "Holly" Lepense, battery clerk, pounds the typewriter keys 12 hours a day and in between times attends special schools; Schultz has made a new record in bunk upsetting; the rookies are getting lonesome; "Dauber" Nash has arrived at the conclusion that he is the prime warbler of the outfit; Jess Wood hunted the camp over for the "military channel" and "Gee" Cole searched hours for the "night-watchman" thinking he was the officer of the day.

On Pistol Range

Thursday the battery was taken to the pistol range where many of the men hoped to annex the pistol shooting honors from Lieut. Stark, acknowledged to be the best marksman at previous encampments.

Routine drills, schools and athletic periods take up the great majority of the men's time during the day and the new men are finding much of interest at the schools and during the athletic hours—all old to the veterans who have attended two or three previous encampments. The evening hours are free, most of the men attending boxing and wrestling matches at the Y. M. C. A. or in making life miserable for some bunkmate that is attempting to gain a few hours of additional sleep.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT

Washington—"Bob Is Doomed," was the headline in a local paper which gave La Follette backers a shock as they sat down to their bacon and eggs the other morning.

Visions of some dark conspiracy against the Independent presidential candidate raced through their minds. Nothing less, it seemed, could justify the definite, unqualified statement as set forth in black-faced type.

Hurriedly they pitched into the text of the story. Then they slumped back with sighs of relief.

For, it then dawned upon them, there are other "Bob's" than Bob La Follette. For instance, the Shingle Bob.

And the doom which was foretold in the printed piece was not the doom of Bob La Follette, decreed by his political adversaries, but the doom of the feminine hair bob, decreed by delegates to the National Beauty Shop Convention!

* * *

But just as the loyal La Follette legion would have resisted any such claim against their favorite, so do the devotees of the feminine hair bob deny the right of the beauty shop buccaneers to force them again under the slavery of long tresses.

Here in Washington, bobbed hair has passed the stage of a fad. It is no longer a mark of flapperism.

Maid and matron alike, from the breezy debutante to the stately dowager of the diplomatic set, flaunt their short locks as an index of a newly achieved independence.

They may have cut them first because it was "the style." But the bob's real popularity is due to its comfort, not to any mere matter of following the fashion.

* * *

Why not organize the bobs for Bob? Since the old party war horses have Bob La Follette marked for the discard, just as the beauty parlor artists have decreed the doom of the feminine bobbed head, why not line up the Feminine Bobs behind Fighting Bob and thereby corner at once the thousands of votes that are ready to fight for the right to keep short hair?

La Follette's platform declares against Special Privilege. The right to short hair must not be permitted to revert to an exclusively masculine right!

* * *

Democratic sloganeers are still searching for some happy phrase to offset the "Keep Cool With Coolidge" chant of the G. O. P.

The latest offering, submitted by Willard Baker of Athol, N. Y., is:

"Keep Decent With Davis."

Answering the insinuation of this line, however, the La Follette camp comes back with the warning:

"Don't Throw Dirt on Bob and Burton."

While the Republicans retort that the best evident in the Democratic slogan is additional reason why the country should "Keep Cool and Keep Coolidge."

The aftermath of Senator Brookhart's renomination in Iowa, as the G. O. P. candidate for the Senate, may be the entrance of John T. Adams, former chairman of the Republican National Committee, into the race as an "Independent."

Brookhart, the "Republican" nominee, will support the candidacy of La Follette, the Independent, for president. Adams, as an "Independent," would fight both Brookhart, the Republican, and La Follette, the Independent.

Railroads Cannot Give Guard Officers Passes

Madison, Wis., July 31.—A railroad company is not authorized to issue to its employes who are officers in the Wisconsin national guard, free passes except such as may be used by the holder in the performance of his duty as an employe of the railroad, Assistant Attorney General Messerschmidt held today in an opinion to B. J. Carpenter, district attorney at Stevens Point.

The ruling was issued regarding certain employes of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie railroad, who are officers in the state guards.

Recall Amendment Must Pass Next Legislature

Madison, Wis., July 31.—The constitutional amendment providing for recall of elective officers, proposed by joint resolution adopted for the first time by the 1923 legislature, is not now effective, Assistant Attorney General Bump today advised Secretary of State Zimmerman. Such a resolution must be adopted by the 1925 legislature and submitted to and approved by the people before taking effect, the ruling said.

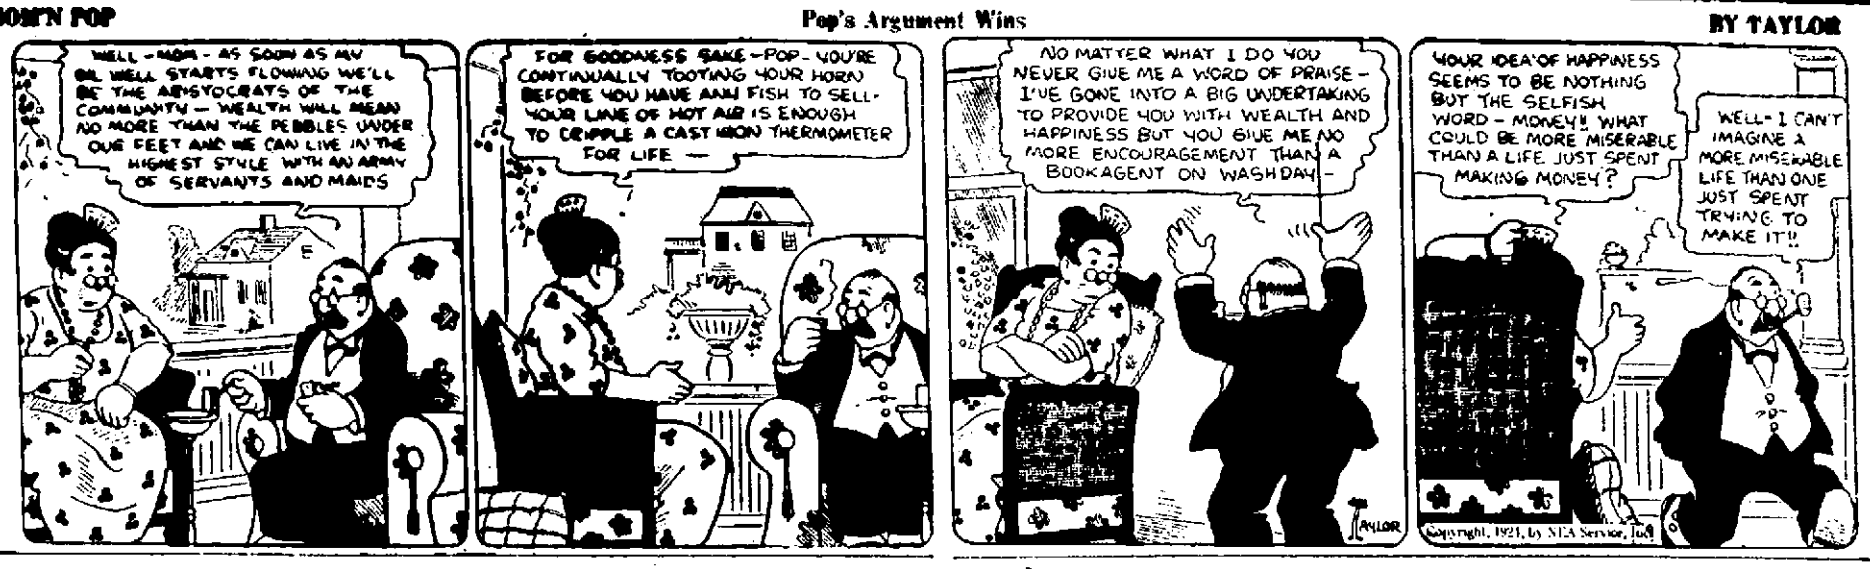
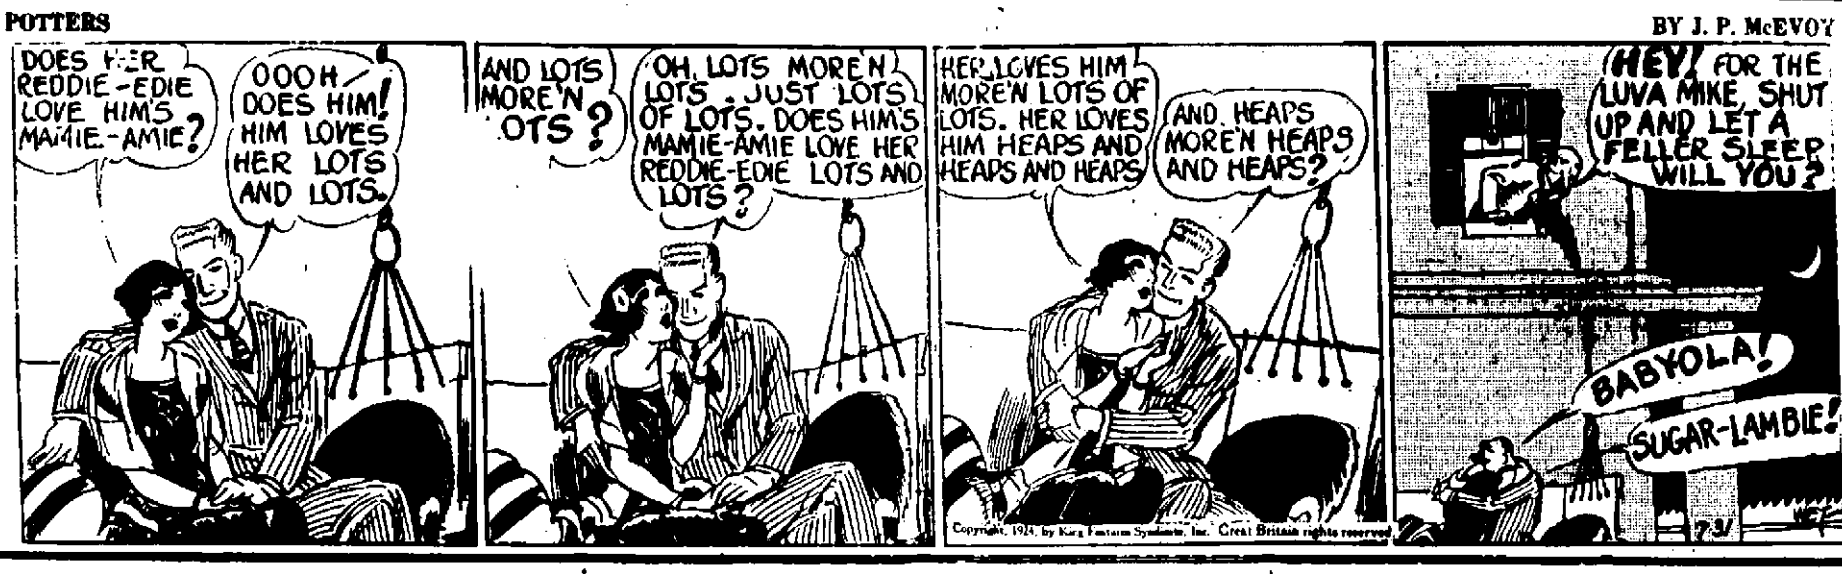
MOM'N POP — Pop's Argument Wins — BY TAYLOR



THE POTTERS — BY J. P. McEVOY



The Blue Imp

By WICKES WAMBOLDT

The Devil in his goings to and fro in the earth, and walking up and down therein, observed that of all the imps he sent forth to undo mankind, the Blue Imp was the most successful. Time after time, the other imps returned empty-handed, but the Blue Imp always brought in somebody. The Devil desired to find out why.

"Come," said he one day to the Blue Imp, who had just returned from an unusually successful foray, "come, let's have a brimstone cocktail. I want to talk with you." And as they talked and disposed of one mixture after another, the Blue Imp became loquacious.

"It is easy," he confided to the Devil. "Here is the way I work. I pick my man. Then I get on his shoulder, and I whisper in his ear, 'You are discouraged.' 'Nobody loves you.' 'Everything goes wrong with you.' 'What's the use anyway.' and I keep this up until finally he gets to believe it, and then I bring him in."

"Wonderful," said the Devil, as he clapped the Blue Imp admiringly on the shoulder. "Now I am going to give your system the acid test." He handed the Blue Imp a slip, "Here is the name and address of a man I have been trying to get for twenty-five years. Go after him. Let's see what you can do."

The imp was off. In three weeks he returned. He was a bedraggled, dejected looking imp, and he was alone. "How-come?" asked the Devil.

"Well, it was this-a-way," replied the Blue Imp, wearily. "I found my man all right, and I got on his shoulder, and I talked in his ear, but the system didn't work with him. Every time I'd say, 'You are discouraged,' he would yell back, 'You are a liar. I am as full of hope as spring time.' When I would say, 'Nobody loves you,' he would yell back, 'Chase yourself. I have more friends than income tax reduction.' When I would say, 'Everything goes wrong with you,' he would yell back, 'Heck! Nothing ever happened to me that was not good for me.' And when I would say, 'What is the use anyway?' he would say, 'Everything is the use. Get out; this is my busy day.' We kept that thing up for three weeks. Then I got discouraged."

The Blue Imp laid his head down on the table and cried like a baby. And the Devil ground his teeth until they smoked. He stamped his foot till hell trembled. "I never can get my hooks into a man," he cried with impotent fury, "as long as he refuses to be discouraged."

Liquor Tested on Rats Lands Couple in Jail

Omaha, Neb.—Thirteen sleek rats, penned in a cage in a chemist's laboratory, were instrumental in government agents obtaining conviction of an Ohaha man and his wife on a liquor selling charge, with subsequent sentence of a year in jail and a heavy fine for each in federal court.

The question of sampling the liquor which the pair sold was brought up in court, and to determine whether it was fit for human consumption, the agents submitted it to a chemist. He fed it to the rats and then watched their reaction.

The rodents displayed many of the characteristics of an intoxicated human, the chemist reported. Not one died, rather they all thrived, he declared on the witness stand. Althou defense counsel questioned the admissibility of the experiment as evidence, it was allowed to stand as indicating the potency and possibilities of the liquor for beverage purposes.

WOMAN MAY SIT IN NEXT ASSEMBLY

HELEN M. BROOKS OF COLOMA IS UNOPPOSED FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FROM WAUSHARA-GREEN LAKE DISTRICT

Madison, Wis.—Wisconsin may have at least one woman in its legislature when the state lawmaking bodies meet next winter.

Helen M. Brooks, Coloma, is the only republican candidate in the field from the Green Lake and Waushara district in the race for the assembly. She will, however, have a male opponent in Amos O. Ellison, Kingston, a democrat.

Professor's Wife Runs

Mrs. Louis Kahlenberg, wife of a University of Wisconsin professor, will make a strong campaign for an assembly seat from the Madison district. She has the endorsement of Mrs. Robert M. La Follette, wife of the presidential candidate. She is opposing Herman Sachtjen, present prohibition commissioner, who has served in the assembly during the last two terms. If he is elected Sachtjen is considered as the most likely candidate for the position of speaker of the house. John Dahl; Rice Lake, who was speaker last session, is not in the race this year.

Ellen D. Megow Files

Five women candidates in all are listed among the 111 who filed petitions with the secretary of state. Ellen D. Megow, Jackson, is a candidate for the assembly on the republican ticket from Adams and Marquette counties. Ida Fenske, Milwaukee, is the Socialist candidate for secretary of state. Maria I. A. Nelson, Green Bay is the prohibition candidate for lieutenant governor and Ada B. Crandall, Walworth, the prohibition candidate for state treasurer.

Philosophers Sold Cakes In Watertown Fifty Years Ago

Watertown, Wis., July 31—"The ambitious plumber or baker or butcher of today no doubt would be shocked to learn that men of their trades discussed learningly on Main street on certain passages of Timoritus or Homer, Schopenhauer or Kant more than half a century ago. This happened in Wisconsin in the early fifties and sixties, and more particularly so, in Watertown, according to a story told The Associated Press by Ralph D. Blumenfeld, a former Watertown man, but now chairman and editor of the London (England) Daily Express.

Mr. Blumenfeld recites that Watertown became the haven for exiled German educators, lawyers and other learned men, who fled their native land following the revolution of 1848.

"There was a great influx of these men," says Mr. Blumenfeld. "Since they could not all practice law or teach the dead languages, they took to other pursuits, so that it was no uncommon thing to hear on Main street a tavern-keeper, a grocer or a cobbler disputing vigorously on certain dissertations of ancient men of different schools of philosophy. It was a strange and fascinating mixture of the sublime and the ridiculous."

The editor relates an instance, when the "fancy" baker, depositing his little basket of confection sat the Blumenfeld garden gate, joyfully explained to Blumenfeld, that he had successfully translated the latest philosophical tract of Bacchilydes.

"The music teacher who imparted to me the secrets of the violin—sometimes rather forcibly—pulled out a photograph showing his uncle in the full panoply of a minister of state in the old kaiser's entourage," states Mr. Blumenfeld.

"These university men, with their quaint traditions, their deep learning and their pride, dominated our town to such an extent that all other people, not of German descent, had perforce to accomodate themselves to conditions of learning German at the risk of going under. Thus it was that even the Irish immigrants and the Welsh farmers and the Yankee storekeepers and their sons and daughters all talked German.-I remember even an Indian youth out on the Reutlinger road speaking German more fluently than English."

Boy Scouts Back From Two Weeks' Camping Period

Approximately forty Wisconsin Rapids Boy Scouts of America returned last evening, accompanied by Scout Executive J. H. Wilcox and Harmon Voskuil, assistant camp director, from the boy scout camp at Sunset lake where they have been camping since July 16. One of the most pleasant camps in the history of local scouting is reported and Scout Executive Wilcox reports that only the best of feeling was evidenced between the Wausau and Wisconsin Rapids scouts.

The camping period, which lasted two weeks, was filled with boy scout activities such as swimming, canoeing, boating and wooderaft. A feature of the period was the Indian—White Settlers battle which took place Monday night. Early in the afternoon the Indians, under the leadership of Mr. Voskuil, left camp and established a new camp. The whites left an hour earlier and from that time on scouts from the two rival camps were out hunting for traces of their "enemies." As night came on the whites retired to their new camp, deciding to wait until daylight, but not so with the Indians and as night slowly grew into day the Indians stole down upon the whites, "massacreing" them and taking their "scalps."

Monday, next, the girls of the city will leave for a two weeks encampment under the guidance of Miss Bess Bradford. All girls of the city may attend if they so desire. Scout Executive Wilcox will be in charge of swimming and other activities. Mrs. Charles Talbot, Rib Lake, who cooked at the camp for boys, will also cook during the next encampment.

E. church, the Rev. James Churm officiating. Interment will be made in the Riverside cemetery, Nekoosa.

Excavation Work Delayed Through Presence Of Rock

Red Granite, the hardest rock that can be found anywhere in the Badger state, has been offering considerable resistance to the efforts of Frank Henry and his crew of laborers who are excavating the basement for the new Mead and Witter buildings on Grand avenue. Because of the presence of this rock considerable more time than was anticipated is needed to complete the excavating, but the work is now progressing at a rapid rate.

When first started one of the jammers from the Consolidated mill was used to get the dirt out, a huge dipper being dropped into the ground, but this method was unavailing after the surface dirt was removed. Now a large crew of workmen equipped with shovels and picks are throwing the dirt into giant boxes that are hoisted by the jammer and emptied into the gondola cars that are used to transport the dirt to the northern end of the company's yards where an enlargement is taking place.

Already about three fourths of the dirt has been removed and the entire west half is about dug with the exception of large boulders of granite that will have to be blasted out. One explosion of eight charges yesterday and another one of nine charges today wrought havoc with the rocks but considerable more remains to be removed by blasting process.

SENATORS RALLY TO TAKE VICTORY AWAY FROM TYS

JOHNSON KNOCKED OUT OF BOX; THREE RUN RALLY IN NINTH COPS; CUBS AND GIANTS BOTH LOSERS

Detroit—After seeing Walter Johnson driven from the box in the second inning Wednesday, Washington whipped into a last inning spurt, scored three runs in the ninth and defeated Detroit, 7 to 4.

Cleveland—The Cleveland Indians won from the Philadelphia Athletics here, 5 to 4, in the first game of the series.

Chicago—After staging a ninth-inning rally, scoring three runs, the White Sox triumphed in the opener against Boston, 7 to 6. Willie Kamm featured with five hits in five trips to the plate.

New York—The Giants played a loose game here Wednesday when they lost the first of a new series to the Pirates, 6 to 3.

The Giants started well, scoring two runs in the first inning, Frisch making home on Wilson's double and the latter on Kelly's single. Frisch also made a homer in the sixth. The Pirates picked up toward the end of the game, scoring two in the ninth.

Boston—The Boston Braves took both ends of a double-header here Wednesday from Cincinnati the scores being 3 to 0 and 6 to 3.

Cuyler error in the sixth inning of the second game enabled the Braves to tie up the score. In the eighth inning, with two out and the bases filled, Gibson doubled and cleared the bases. A home run by Felix in the first and by Bressler in the second featured the games.

New York—Burleigh Grimes shut out the Chicago Cubs, 6 to 0, here Wednesday, holding them to but five hits and striking out five men.

Emil Milstead, newly-acquired Cub pitcher, started the game for Chicago but was replaced by Wheeler in the third after the Robins had put over three runs in the first inning. And three again in the third. Wheeler held the Robins scoreless from then on.

Philadelphia—The St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday balked the Phillies' efforts to edge into sixth place in the National league race by defeating them, 9 to 8.

Milwaukee—The Brewers tied their season's record of four consecutive victories Wednesday, defeating Minneapolis, 10 to 7. They pounded their old playmate, Doug McWeeney, to all sections of Borchert's field to win but were given a scare in the final session the Millers turning in five scores. Ray Lingrel pitched a masterly game and might have held the invaders to two runs had his support not faltered in the final inning.

Kansas City—Tony Faeth, hurling ace of the Saints, ran his string of scoreless innings pitched to 27 Wednesday when he blanked the locals in the final of a double header, 2 to 0. He held the Kaws to one hit.

Kansas City won the first game, 7 to 4.

Toledo—The Hens and Colonels split a double header here Wednesday, Deberry blanking the locals in the first, 6 to 0, although Toledo got 10 hits, and the locals, copping the aftermath, 5 to 2.

Columbus—Indianapolis Wednesday defeated Columbus, 4 to 3. A hard rain ended the game in the sixth inning. Petty and Ambrose were each hit hard in one inning.

Muskegon Player Hits in 38 Consecutive Games

Muskegon, Mich., July 31.—Bur Clancy, Muskegon first baseman, brought to thirty-eight the number of consecutive games in which he has hit safely when he doubled in the eighth inning of Tuesday's game with Saginaw. Sensational catches robbed him of two other hits. Clancy, who belongs to the Chicago White Sox, is playing for Muskegon in the Michigan-Ontario league under an optional agreement. The modern major league record for safe hitting in consecutive games is forty-one, held by George Sisler.

DIRECTOR ISSUES NEW RULINGS FOR PLAYGROUND BALL

CAPTAINS MUST HAND LINEUPS IN AT THIS TIME FOR REMAINDER OF SEASON; GAMES MUST START ON TIME

With the first half of the playground leagues schedules completed, save for a few postponed games, Director "Red" Reynolds has issued a new ruling that will do away with the delay in the start of games and the presence of a player on more than one team. The new ruling will go into effect with the start of the second half of the season.

Will Forfeit Games

Under the new rule each captain will be asked to submit the names of the players who will compose his lineup for the remainder of the season and only those players who are on this lineup will be allowed to participate in a league game. No player will be allowed to play on two teams.

In an effort to get the games started on scheduled time the playground director has ruled that all games will be scheduled to start at 6:15 in the Twilight League and that if one team fails to put in an appearance or fails to have a full lineup on the field ten minutes later the game will be forfeited to the other side.

Urges Prompt Action

Director Reynolds today stated that the Fords were the first to hand in the names of their lineup for the remainder of the season and that he urges all other teams to hand in their lineups at once, thus making it possible for the remainder of the season to be wound up with colors flying.

Chicago Nine Dropped From The Midwest

Beloit, Wis., July 31.—The Logan Square team of Chicago, Midwest baseball league, was today dropped from the circuit, following the withdrawal of the Niesens this week. The Midwest league will complete the season as a six club league and a fifty game schedule has been added to the original one. This action was taken yesterday at a meeting in Chicago, Al J. Crubb, secretary of the league, announced.

COTTRILL SCORES NO HIT SHUTOUT

Twirling a no hit, no run game last night Cottrill, star moundsman of the Fords, scored his second successive shutout and kept his team in the Twilight League leadership with a clean slate. Two passes were all that kept him from pitching a perfect game. Bethke's Specials were the Wednesday night victims of Cottrill's salary wing, losing 7-0.

Adding Nelson and Ritchay to their lineup for the remainder of the season the Fords looked good last night even in the absence of Gazely, star shortstop. Hahn, pitching for the Specials, allowed only three earned runs, but errors back of him and Cottrill's invincible hurling paved the way to defeat. The Ford ace secured 13 strikeouts.

This evening the Fords will battle the fast coming Nitehawks at the Ahdawagam grounds in a game that should even surpass the thrilling 2-0 win of the Fords over the Badgers last Friday night.

AUTO RACERS TO SETTLE GRUDGE

NOWICKI AND BRACH, LEADERS IN BADGER AUTO RACE WORLD, TO RACE FOR SUPREMACY SUNDAY

Milwaukee—Stanley Nowicki has accepted the defi of Artie Brach, who intends to go gunning for the Polish veteran in Sunday's cup races which the Thirty-second division will hold over the state fair track. For a time it was feared that the Polish star might withdraw from the races, but his entry was filed on Wednesday and he promised to speed off with a big portion of the $2,500 which has been hung up as prize money.

"If Artie Brach thinks he is going to make me eat his dust Sunday he will have to go faster than any driver ever went around the state fair course before," said Nowicki when he filed his entry with the International Motor Contest association representative in Milwaukee, O. E. Remey. "My car is at least two seconds faster than it was on July 20 when I set a new track record, and Brach and the other fellows will have to travel some to beat me if I have any luck whatever."

Tilden's Protege Loser in California Tourney

FIRPO LEAVES FOR CAMP; WILL HAVE NO U. S. TRAINER

New York, July 30.—Luis Angel Firpo departed from Broadway yesterday for the seclusion of his training camp at White Sulphur Springs, Saratoga Springs. The Argentine heavyweight and his retinue of South American handlers left New York on the night boat for Albany, planning to go today to the Springs where Firpo will start training for his match with Harry Wills, negro challenger, at Boyle's thirty acres, Sept. 11.

Firpo reiterated that his training will be entirely in the hands of his native countrymen with the possibility of an American heavyweight added to his sparring staff. He endeavored to get in touch with Bill Tate, giant negro heavyweight, to join his staff of workers, but the negotiations were incomplete up to the time of his sailing.
